

Stoney Lonesome

Started in the 1940's, Stoney Lonesome was one of the first motorcycle racing groups formed in Indiana. In the 1950's the club purchased the first piece of the property that has now expanded to over 200 acres.

Stoney Lonesome is located 6 miles West of Columbus, Indiana on U.S. Highway 46 and approx. 43 miles South of Indianapolis, Indiana..

Club events are a year round schedule of activities that seek to promote all aspects of motorcycling and the support of numerous charities.

The club is chartered by the American Motorcyclist Association (AMA) and all members and public riders are required to be active members of the association.
